POLICE MAKE TWO RAIDS

Get 325 Bottles of Beer and Some Whiskey in Central Wharf Boarding House—Eight People Taken from Disorderly House in Myers' Alley.

After a decidedly quiet seven weeks, business in the police department took a big boom on Sunday, when several arrests were made, including two raids. There are several cases of intoxication and breach of the peace to come before the city court this morning, while seven of the prisoners are charged with keeping a disorderly house, one for keeping such a house and one for violating the liquor law. Two others are charged with ringing a false fire alarm. From information received it was decided to raid the boarding house kept by Tony Carbone in the building where Ryan's saloon was formerly located in Central wharf. Chief Murphy sent Sergeant Twomey and Policemen Maloney and Carroll to do the work and after getting into the house they had no trouble in locating a quantity of beer and whiskey. A jug half full of the latter was found between the mattresses of a bed, and an order for the liquor was taken. All of the liquor was taken to the police headquarters and Tony Carbone was taken under arrest. There were 325 bottles of beer in the two barrels, there being two different brands. The prisoner secured bonds late in the afternoon and was released until this morning. It is understood that men were seen going in there Sundays at all times and it is believed much of the Sunday drunkenness results from such places.

During Sunday afternoon Adolph Strom and Joseph Sakoski, both residents of High street, were brought in on the charge of having sent in the false alarm of fire from Thomsen in January, when box 132 was rung. It is understood that the men were seen in the neighborhood at the time the alarm was struck and it is expected their cases will come before the court this morning.

Raid at Midnight. At midnight Sunday night, as the result of a number of complaints regarding the place in Myers' alley, back of the Mohican store, Policemen Morgan, Smith, Fenton and Ebberts were sent to raid the place kept by William Anderson. He and seven others were found there, being two white men and a white woman, while the rest are colored. Charged with keeping a disorderly house and William Anderson was arrested and as frequenters the following were taken in: Henry Frost, Robert Frost, Elijah Williams, Charles McCaffrey, Harvey Woodruff, Lena Woodruff and Dora B. Tremens. The Woodruffs are husband and wife.

CIG Y. M. C. A. MEETING AT BROADWAY THEATER Stirring Address by W. B. Millar of New York City and Singing by Bee-thoven Quartette.

Under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association, a meeting for men was conducted in Broadway theater on Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3.30 o'clock, at which a good sized audience was nearly filling the body of the house, was present. The two special features which made a fine programme for the afternoon were the address by W. B. Millar of New York, who is in charge of the association's army and navy work, and the selections by the Bee-thoven male quartette of Boston. General Secretary W. A. Morse presided and seated with him upon the platform were President A. A. Brown, Chairman C. H. Hobson of the religious work committee, and Rev. C. H. Ricketts of the Greenville Congregational church, who read the Scripture and offered prayer in the opening exercises. The singing was led by George A. Turner and an orchestra. The first of the selections by the quartette was "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and the second was "The Light of the World." The quartette was composed of four men, and the selections were of a most inspiring nature. The speaker of the afternoon was introduced by Chairman Hobson, with a brief reference to the world-wide scope of the Y. M. C. A. work, which had lately included the soldiers and sailors of the United States were the subject of the address. Mr. Millar, having been the organizer of that work.

In beginning his stirring address, Mr. Millar said that he could more than endorse the sentiment of President Taft, who had said as a result of his trip around the world when Secretary of war that man for man the soldiers and sailors of the United States were not equalled in the world. In initiative, in bravery, in patriotism, in endurance and from any standpoint, he stated that investigation had showed that the better classes of hotels, restaurants and places of amusement were barred to the man in the uniform of Uncle Sam. The men also had got the notion, though it was a mistaken one, that the church did not want them. But every naval station and military post was flanked with places of vice where these men were welcome. Out of this condition had arisen the work for soldiers and sailors by the Y. M. C. A.

It had grown greatly in the past 11 years, although people had said that the men wouldn't go to any place labelled Christian. The first place which was opened, which was in Brooklyn, had grown to a nine-story building, and that had had to be doubled, but yet there were thousands turned away in a year who could not be accommodated. The effect of the Y. M. C. A. was shown last at Christmas in Norfolk when there were 6,000 sailors on shore leave and not an arrest. The police-man on that boat said if it had been a crowd of college students he would have had to break 100 heads.

In 11 years, two and a half million dollars had been given for this work and the annual expenses were now $250,000. It is an all-round work, body, mind and spirit, making the Christian gentleman. The salvation of these men means much to the salvation of the world, for it is saving the boys and lads who are going out to homes at the crucial point in their lives, for they are taking Jesus Christ for their captain for the upward and onward way.

A final selection by the quartette and the benediction closed the meeting.

CATHOLIC INTERESTS. Large Number at Holy Communion on Palm Sunday—Rev. Hugh Treanor Directs Attention to Good Friday Observance.

About sixty members of St. Mary's T. A. and B. society, with the older members of the Tierney Guards and St. Anne's Temperance society, received Holy Communion in a body at the 7.30 o'clock mass in St. Patrick's church on Sunday. Mass was celebrated by Rev. Hugh Treanor, who was assisted in giving communion by Rev. Joseph E. McCarthy. Rev. Father Treanor commended the societies for their edifying example.

C. H. BROWN RETURNS FROM NINE WEEKS' TRIP. Saw the Sights at Panama, Mexico, and in the Western States.

Charles H. Brown of Warren street returned on Saturday night from a trip of nine weeks, which gave him one of the most unique and varied experiences he has ever enjoyed. Mr. Brown's trip was over the Panama route, with its apex at Panama and the bases at New York and San Francisco, giving all varieties of climate from to the snow-capped mountains of the Sierras to the hot sun-baked plains of the West. Leaving here January 17, he went to Panama, where, after a stay of several days inspecting the route, he took the big canal, he next enjoyed twenty-four delightful days in a trip up the Pacific coast by boat, stopping off at half a dozen of the most beautiful Central American republics, and Mexico. San Francisco occupied several days, then there were three weeks in coming home across the continent, he next went through the cities of southern California, Arizona, Grand canyon, Colorado Springs, Denver, Kansas City, Chicago, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia to New York. He reached the capital just in time to be on hand for the triumph of the "Insurgents" over Speaker Cannon.

"Of all the things seen, none was more impressive than Panama," said Mr. Brown, which was a wonder and a revelation. It is already a country for tourists and destined to become still more of a Mecca for travelers, as well as a highly pleasurable and comfortable health resort. He walked through and inspected the route of the canal, which he described as a marvelous and stupendous work, with three most difficult things things accomplished by the Americans: First, the care and preparation everywhere for the men and the work; second, the removal and disposal of the excavation from the canal, which is carried to the sea at Panama, making at the same time hundreds of acres of new land; and, thirdly, the digging of the canal itself. Both Colon and Panama have fine harbors, the view coming from the harbor being delightful, and the view looking out from Panama, with its island, cannot be excelled. The city of Panama, overlooking the city of Panama, the harbor dotted with islands, the canal on the landward side, and the view from the city of Panama as far as the eye can reach, is a scene of unparalleled grandeur and beauty, making what Mr. Brown says is a veritable paradise. He saw but one Norwichean while he was gone, meeting Carl Colt in Panama, seeing him on the dock as the steamer was landing.

DAIRYMEN'S INSTITUTES To Be Held This Week at Groton and Jordan, in Waterford.

By invitation of Groton Grange the Connecticut Dairymen's association will hold a public institute meeting in the A. O. U. hall at Groton, on Wednesday, March 23. The programme for the day follows: Morning session, 10.30: Address of welcome, Irving W. Couch, master of the grange; response, Wilson H. Lee, president of the association; discussion, "The Necessity of the Dairymen's Institute," by Prof. J. M. Trueman, Connecticut Agricultural college.

At 12.30 the dinner will be furnished by the Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church. There will be other prominent dairymen there to speak. The committee for the Grange includes W. S. Thomas, C. L. Gates, E. J. Chapman. By invitation of Konomos Grange, No. 1, of Waterford, the Connecticut Dairymen's association will hold an all day public institute meeting in A. O. U. hall, Jordan, on Thursday, March 24. The programme for the day is as follows:

10.30 a. m., address of welcome, E. J. Hemstead, response, Wilson H. Lee, president if the association; discussion, "The Cost of Producing Milk," opened by Prof. J. M. Trueman, Connecticut Agricultural college. This meeting is open and free to every one interested. The committee for the Grange includes E. J. Hemstead, T. H. Hanney, H. C. Lamphere, E. E. Lewis, Oscar Dinmuck.

AT CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Special Music at the Evening Service. Master Roy Cropper, the boy singer in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Boston, was heard with much pleasure at the Sunday evening service at the Central Baptist church by a congregation of good numbers. His selections were "Angels Ever Bright and True," which he sang before the sermon, and "Calvary," which was rendered afterwards. For the offertory anthem the church quartette sang in pleasing harmony "The Lord is My Light." In the absence of the pastor, who is engaged in evangelistic work at Groton, Rev. A. B. Coats was the preacher at both the morning and evening services. He is secretary of the Connecticut Baptist convention and his two helpful discourses were enjoyed by good sized congregations.

Shirtwaist Prize. The prize of a shirtwaist pattern offered at the dance at Cadillac hall on Saturday night was won by a young woman. In the large crowd present were a number of dancers from New London and Willimantic.

A MESSAGE FOR YOU!

In Case Your Thoughts Are Set on the Important Issue of Hat-Choosing. Hats, hats, hats! They are the talk of femininity every minute just now, and their style, their shape, their adornment, their price are paramount issues in women's world!

All this week, up to the last minute of Eastern Even, lower women will be in pursuit of a hat, and fortunate is she who finds one completely to her taste! This is an easy matter to do, if the search is only systematic and intelligent.

Fire Alarm Ringers. Anxious milliners have prepared scores of beautiful pattern hats for seekers after the very latest in modes; colors, trimmings, ornaments, etc., are sent to match every costume.

Nothing could be prettier than a lace turban with net crown, its simple and elegant adornment bird of paradise aligrette, noted in Saturday's shopping rounds.

Something more showy was a mushroom shape in Rami braid of olive tints, with white lilacs and old rose crown, and straps of king blue velvet ribbon in the crown.

An elegant Gainsborough in white braid had black facing, black velvet ribbon trimmings, with white wheat in crown effect.

Equally attractive was an olive green tailored hat in fancy satin braid, with a black velvet crown, and a gold and blue lace quill.

Beautiful models are shown in raisin shades, in violet, the favored reds, and there are some choice styles for those who are in mourning.

The exacting buyer can be suited very easily, and will find prices right, by improving the suggestions of the Bulletin's millinery advertisers this morning.

FUNERALS.

Stanislaus Gawrowski. Saturday morning the funeral of Stanislaus Gawrowski was held from his home in Yantic, and at St. Joseph's church, where it was celebrated by Rev. J. J. Ambot. The bearers were three brothers and three cousins and burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Patrick Sweeney. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives on Sunday afternoon at the funeral of Fannie Kinkead, wife of Patrick Sweeney, which was held at 1.30 o'clock from the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Kinkead, of Fitchville. The bearers were Hugh H. Kinkead of Providence, Thomas H. Kinkead of New York, James H. Kinkead of this city, all brothers of the deceased, and Michael Sweeney, Charles Kingberger and Timothy Fields, all of Fitchville. At 2 o'clock service was held at St. John's church, Fitchville, Rev. M. H. May officiating.

Mrs. Leonard W. Reynolds. At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon the funeral of Lane Little Reynolds, widow of Leonard W. Reynolds, died last Thursday, was held at the home of her late home, 100 Alice street, the house being filled with relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Potter of the Holiness Mission and Rev. Thomas A. Peabody. "We'll Never Say Good-Bye" was sung by the choir. The Rev. Mr. Friend like Jesus" were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Anell A. Champion and Miss Mildred Champion. There was a number of flowers, and the service was conducted by Colchester by Henry Allen and Son this morning for burial in that cemetery, she spent the greater part of her life.

Thomas Ryan. At noon on Saturday the body of Thomas Ryan arrived here from Waterford, where he died last Thursday. Shea & Burke took charge of the body, and at St. Patrick's church a committal service was read and the burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery. There were many relatives in attendance. The bearers were Jeremiah H. Corcoran, John Ryan, M. J. Kelly, Michael, Joseph and James Ryan.

The deceased was a native of Norwich, having been born here, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ryan, 42 years ago. He had been sick but a short time, death being the result of pneumonia. He was employed in the rolling mills at Thomsen's, and from there went to Valley Falls, N. Y., and five years ago moved to Waterford, Mass. He was well known here, and it was with deep regret that his many friends learned of his death. He leaves three brothers, John Ryan of Norwich Town, Michael and Joseph Ryan of Valley Falls, and three sisters, Mrs. J. H. Corcoran of this city, Della Ryan of New London and Ellen Ryan of Chicago.

Michael Duprez. The death of Michael Duprez occurred last Friday at his late home, in Asylum street, after an illness of several days. On Saturday morning the funeral was held from the rooms of M. V. Murphy, and the burial took place in St. Patrick's cemetery. Friends acted as bearers. The deceased was born in Canada 29 years ago, the son of Louis and Celia King Duprez. He was a member of the local Bartenders' union and had been employed here a number of years. He was married to Mary A. Ryan Nov. 24, 1909, by whom he is survived. His mother and a brother reside in Occum, and he has sisters in Danielson.

Catarrh Germs

Move Out When Hyomel Moves In.

No stomach dosing. Hyomel is made chiefly of oil of eucalyptus and eucalycol taken from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, and combined with the excellent antiseptics employed in the Listerian system.

In inland Australia the atmosphere is so impregnated with balsam thrown out by the eucalyptus trees that germs cannot live, and in consequence catarrh and consumption are unknown.

Breathe Hyomel and get the same pleasant germ killing air as you would get in the eucalyptus forests.

Hyomel is sold by druggists everywhere and by The Lee & Osgood Co. at $1.00 a complete outfit. An outfit consists of a bottle of Hyomel, a hard rubber pocket inhaler and full instructions for use. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, but if you need another bottle of Hyomel you can get it at druggists for only 50c at any time. Guaranteed to cure catarrh, croup and throat troubles or money back. Booth's Hyomel Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
